MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS FOR OUTDOOR BBQ PITS AND CRAWFISH COOKERS

Commercial outdoor cooking on barbeque pits and crawfish cookers is a common practice in Texas. Although many of the establishments have been in existence for many years, our first responsibility is to protect public health. Barbeque pits and crawfish cookers are used in many types of facilities, both old and new. The following guidelines should be used during an inspection to determine the requirements for the various types of barbeque facilities.

Requirements Based Upon the Type of Facility

1.) Fixed Food Establishment

Outdoor barbeque pits in conjunction with a fixed food establishment shall have, as a minimum, an overhead cover, an enclosed screened shelter and floors that are surfaced with concrete, asphalt, gravel or similar materials. No food preparation activities, other than cooking on the pit, are allowed unless handwash facilities, with hot and cold water, are available in the shelter.

2.) Temporary Food Establishments

The barbeque pits that are operated in conjunction with a temporary food establishment shall meet the requirements as outlined in TFER, section 228.222. Overhead protection is required at the preparation area and is required at the pit area, if food preparation activities occur at the pit area. Enclosure and screening of the preparation area will be required if there is any evidence of insect, rodent, or other pest contamination. Handwash facilities, with tempered, flowing water, must be available at the preparation site.

3.) Barbeque Pits on Mobile Food Units

Barbeque pits that are attached to a mobile food unit do not have to be screened unless there is evidence of insect, rodent, or other pest contamination at the pit. All preparation should be conducted inside of the unit, which must have all required handwashing sinks and warewashing sinks. If any food preparation activities, such as cutting or slicing, occur at the pit area, handwashing facilities must be available at that location. Overhead cover of the pit area shall also be required.

Exceptions may be considered on a case-by-case basis.*

For the purpose of retail food establishments, the Class A minimum fill requirements are recommended.
