

RENTERS & LANDLORDS

Behind on rent or utilities?

The Texas Rent Relief Program is here to help.

COVID-19 has affected Texans across the state. We have emergency funds available to help Texas renters pay current and past due rent and utility bills.

Tenants and their landlords can apply – even if the landlord has already sued for eviction in their local court.

Households must have incomes at or below 80% of the Area Median Income and meet other eligibility requirements. For full details, visit TexasRentRelief.com.

Limited funds available, accepting applications ONLY from March 14-28, 2023.

Texas Emergency Rental Assistance program administered by the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs.

Providing false, incomplete, or inaccurate information on application forms or seeking assistance for months in which assistance has been or will be provided, may result in up to 5 years of imprisonment and for each occurrence a fine of up to $10,000. | Other program limitations and eligibility requirements apply, not all households may be eligible. See TexasRentRelief.com for details. | Funds may no longer be available by the time a household applies.

What costs does the program cover?

The Texas Rent Relief Program can help renters with the following costs starting as far back as March 13, 2020:

- Past due, current and up to 2 months of expected rent costs
- Past due, current and up to 2 months of expected utility and home energy expenses
